

SNOWSHOE WORKSHOP

March 4, 2017

Snowy Mountains near Judith Gap

What should I bring?

- Bring your snowshoes if you have them. If you don't have snowshoes you can borrow a pair from us.
- Wear warm winter clothes and dress in layers. Don't forget your hat.
- Footwear should be sturdy snow boots or insulated hiking or hunting boots. Bring what you have, we'll make it work for this short walk.
- Some people find it helpful to use ski or hiking poles while snowshoeing – bring them if you have them.

BOW will provide:

- Snowshoes for those who need to borrow a pair.

Registration Fee: $5

Beyond BOW workshops provide opportunities to learn outdoors skills. Workshops are designed especially for women and are an extension of the Becoming an Outdoors-Woman program sponsored by FWP.

If you can walk . . .
you can snowshoe!

Class Information

The beginner/novice snowshoe class will be Saturday morning from 9:30am to noon. You'll learn about the different types of snowshoes and their benefits. The class will take a stroll through the forest to practice walking, and learn to travel up-hill and down-hill on snowshoes.
